

to be, but by the whole tone of her education, by the exaggeration of being an old maid; by the obvious necessity of making way for her sister, by the persistent scheme of her parents and by her own longings for emancipation. For marriage undoubtedly does mean emancipation for poor women; and it is precisely those who look forward to it most who are likely to make the worst use of it.

A Merchant's accidental Death.
FREMONT, Pa., Aug. 23.—Thomas McFerran, prominent grocer of Allegheny City, was standing in front of his store this morning when a large team, with a sign above the driver and struck him on the head, crushing his skull. He died in an hour.

Mitchell, Vance & Co., of New York was done in hopes to save the New York firm, but it seems to have been ineffectual. The result is to embarrass the Cincinnati firm which has acted as agent for Mitchell, Vance & Co., though Mr. McHenry says it will not lead to suspension.

Indian Troubles.

NO NEWS FROM KENDALL.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, COL., Aug. 24.—No news has yet been received from Sheriff Kendall and posse of seventy-five men who left Sunday morning to arrest two Indians indicted for horse stealing and fears are entertained for their safety. A courier came in to-day and reported that a band of 100 bucks from the Uinta Missouri. The steamer Benton passed south to St. Louis to-day, and informed a reporter that other boats are following. All except four will enter the sugar and cotton trade on the lower Mississippi, and the only river traffic that will amount to anything will be between Bismarck and Sioux City, with headquarters at Pierre.

Mrs. Cleveland at Home.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Folsom, accompanied by General Greely and his wife, arrived here about 2 p. m. The President met the party at the depot and escorted Mrs. Cleveland and her mother to a carriage, and the party went at once to the White House.

Since ex-Minister S. S. Cox left Constantinople he has been in receipt of newspapers printed in various eastern languages. Persian, Arabic, Turkish and Greek journals and others in more obscure tongues reach him frequently, and he bids fair to become one of the most accomplished linguists in the country. In fact, so cloved is he with eastern erudition that he avoids the Oriental hotel at Coney Island and registers at the Manhattan.
